PANAMA CANAL

- Princess began cruising to the Panama Canal in 1967 and today, we are the No. 1 cruise line in the region and continuously ranked as the top choice by travel professionals! Princess takes more guests through the Panama Canal and offers more itinerary options and sailing dates than any other cruise line, with a full season of voyages from Fall through Spring.
- This season, Princess offers a wide selection of round trip sailings from the Pacific or Atlantic or one-way cruises that sail ocean-to-ocean. It's the best way to experience the Panama Canal, named one of the "Seven Cruise Wonders of the World" by Condé Nast Traveler.
- Caribbean Princess sails her maiden Panama Canal season transiting the new expanded Gatun Locks on a 10-day roundtrip voyage from Ft. Lauderdale. Coral Princess and Island Princess will also offer 10 voyages, with all three ships sailing into scenic Gatun Lake and to visits to top-rated Caribbean beaches and culturally rich Central American ports.
- Sail from "Ocean to Ocean" between Ft. Lauderdale and Los Angeles, San Francisco or Vancouver, B.C. on 15-day to 19-day sailings, including 17-day Connoisseur small ship sailings on Pacific Princess, that offer a full transit of the Panama Canal, including the Miraflores, Pedro Miguel and Gatun Locks.
- Our signature 2-Day Canal Experience on select 15-day to 19-day voyages, features a full Panama Canal transit and a call to Fuerte Amador to explore the top highlights of Panama and the surrounding region, like Soberania National Park, a visit to a native Embera Village or ride the world's first transcontinental railway.
- Island Princess will offer more departures of our 19-day Panama Canal Pacific Adventure cruise sailing roundtrip from Los Angeles, a transit of the Mira Flores and Pedro Miguel locks and overnight stay at Gatun Lake inside the Panama Canal, as well as various Central American ports.
