

2018 may–september alaska cruises

Whether it is your first cruise to Alaska or your fifth, the wonders never cease to amaze, from towering glaciers and chiseled granite cliffs to miles of forested shores and waters teeming with marine life. Princess has been sailing these waters for decades and we take more people to Alaska than any other cruise line. Join us in 2018 on an extraordinary adventure and see why we’ve been awarded “Best Cruise Line in Alaska” for 10 consecutive years by Travel Weekly.

Voyage of Glaciers: People come to Alaska to see glaciers, and our top-rated Voyage of the Glaciers 7-day cruise, between Vancouver, B.C., and Anchorage (Whittier) offers two glacier-viewing experiences, including Glacier Bay National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and either massive Hubbard Glacier or College Fjord. You’ll also visit three gold-rush era towns, including Icy Strait Point on all Northbound Island Princess voyages.

Roundtrip Cruises: Only Princess offers departures from Los Angeles (12 days) and San Francisco (10 days) that sail Alaska’s famed Inside Passage with a day of glacier viewing and at least three ports of call. There are also 7-day sailings from Seattle and Vancouver, B.C.

Ocean Medallion™ cruises: Offering an unparalleled level of personalized service that anticipates our guests needs. Ocean Medallion™ is the size of a quarter, but don’t let that fool you. Consider the Ocean Medallion your key to opening doors, your stateroom, ship and experiences you won’t find anywhere else. Ocean Medallion is available on select Island Princess voyages. Look for the sailing dates in BOLD below and visit princess.com/ocean to learn more!

Get to know Alaska on board: Only Princess offers North to Alaska, our award-winning enrichment program that brings local personalities on board, like lumberjacks, Iditarod champions and storytellers, to share their insights on what it’s like to live in the Great Land. Guests will also be delighted to meet sled dog puppies in the Piazza, and dine on Signature Alaska Cuisine, and if you hook it on a Princess excursion, we’ll cook it in our galley to your liking with “Cook My Catch!”

MORE ASHORE With our More Ashore port calls on select sailings shown in blue below, guests have more time to explore with a departure of 9 p.m. or later. On all Northbound Voyage of the Glaciers and roundtrip Seattle Inside Passage sailings guests will enjoy late-night departures from Alaska’s capital of Juneau, as well as from Icy Strait Point on all Northbound Island Princess voyages.
